ONE CENT

HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS SELL $19,750 IN LIBERTY BONDS

Will Make It $25,000 Before
Close of Sale Saturday Night

LOCAL SALES OVER $200,000

Shall Charleroi go "Over the top" on the Liberty Loan subscriptions? The answer is with the people of this community.

On Wednesday the high school pupils with 138 applications, sold $19,750 worth of Liberty Bonds. Before the week is over they will make it $25,000. Up until Wednesday evening the total subscriptions in town had reached a total of $240,200. Our quota as fixed by the Treasury Department is $469,600. According to these figures we are $229,100 behind the mark. Now the question is; can we reach the point fixed by the government; can we reach the "objective?"

Bank officials say the people of Charleroi can do it if they will only do what they are able to do, and this without embarrassing them in a financial way.

Reports from other towns in the county show large subscriptions. Washington, which is $360,000 short of its quota, expects to oversubscribe. Donora has about equalled Charleroi, but reports from that town indicate that it will reach it not exceed its quota. The question therefore for us to answer is, How much are we going to "top" our quota.

The local banks are doing great service in this campaign. They are lending every encouragement to the people at large to subscribe to this loan. In order to accommodate workingmen who cannot visit the banks during the day they will remain open each evening between 7 and 8 o'clock, except Saturday evening, when the usual hour from 8 to 9 will be observed.

There remains three days in which we can subscribe to Liberty Loan bonds. Every man and woman should look well into their resources, and subscribe, if they possibly can. It is for a great purpose, this loan. It is loaning money to the government, that it may carry on its work of preparation and prosecution of the war. We must do more than our "bit," we must do our utmost. Last call, Saturday evening, October 27, at 9 o'clock.

WEDNESDAY'S SNOW WAS A RECORD MAKER

The snow which covered all Western Pennsylvania Wednesday morning was a record for the 24th of October. Much damage was done throughout the district, particularly to telephone lines and the long distance service was seriously interfered with. Freight movements were also interfered with because of the heavy fall of snow. The weather man says the storm is over and that clear and cool weather will prevail for some time.

SEARCHING FOR ENGINEER'S BODY

Submarine Diver at Work Searching Wreck of Monitor

TO MAKE SURVEY OF BOAT

Submarine Diver Charles E. Hebel, of Braddock, began work this morning to recover the body of Charles Martin, the engineer who was drowned when the steamer Monitor was sunk Tuesday night, opposite the foot of Second street. Up until 9 o'clock the body had not been recovered, although one-half the engine room had been gone over by the diver. Mr. Hebel is assisted by A. J. Watson, Charles R. Taylor and A. C. Caseber, of Lock No. 4 force, who are experts in operating the machinery and equipments of a submarine diver.

No attempt has yet been made towards raising the boat, as the owners are waiting for the arrival of the marine underwriters from Cincinnati, who will make a survey and inspection of the steamboat. After the survey is completed the underwriters will arrange to have the boat raised and taken to the docks and repaired.

It is not believed the Monitor is damaged outside of the hole which was stove in her hull. That the impact was heavy when the boat came together was shown by the fact that a steel timber head on the barge which struck the Monitor was broken square off. The extent of the damage to the sunken boat however cannot be ascertained until it is raised, which will be in about a week's time, unless in the meantime there should be a heavy rise in the rivers.

The accident to the Monitor leaves the Diamond Coal & Coke company short on motive power. The Budd is on the docks being rebuilt, while the

Buy Liberty Bonds and Protect Your Homes Says President of Women's Club Federation

Mrs. George Zimmerman, of Fremont, O., President of the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs and chairman of the Women's Committee of the Ohio Branch Council of National Defense, has issued this stirring call to the women of the Fourth Federal Reserve District to assist in this second Liberty Loan campaign:

"BUY YOUR BOND FOR LIBERTY TODAY."
"Because it is a good investment."
"Because it helps to keep business going, as every cent of the money raised by these bonds is spent in this country."

"Because if these bonds do not sell, the necessary money must be raised by such heavy taxation as to cripple every industry in the land, and the poor would not be able to provide themselves with the bare necessities of life. Everything would go into taxation. Hence come these bonds as true saviors of the poor."

"Because the buying of a bond gives the investor a real part in winning the war."

"Because it helps save the lives of American soldiers and hastens the day when from the battle front and from the training camps our young men may return to their rightful places in civilian life."

"Remember that this war is more than a national crisis; it is individual in its effect upon the nation. It brings to each and every one the menace of disorder and peril."

"Prussianism is a menace not to France and England alone, but to the United States—to your state, to your city, to your home. Women of America, BUY YOUR BOND FOR LIBERTY TODAY TO PROTECT YOUR HOME."

BOYS ARE MAKING SACRIFICES FOR YOU

MAIL'S TOBACCO FUND

Previously reported	$109.00
James Gray	1.00
Walter Zellers	1.00
John W. Jones	1.00
Leroy S. Schlotter	1.25
Total	$112.25

Have you noticed that soldiers in the various training camps of the United States are making sacrifices largely for Liberty Bonds. Have you noticed that in some camps the totals reach into the hundreds of thousands, and will reach over the million dollar mark. These subscriptions are made from their pay of $30 per month. Going some, isn't it? Well, the boys to make these subscriptions must sacrifice some things, but they gladly give them up in order to help Uncle Sam. They have given their services, have offered their lives if necessary, and now are giving of their fortunes and their sacred honor.

What has this to do with the tobacco fund? Nothing particular, except to show that soldiers are going the "whole thing" in this war. No half measures. True the boys in training in America will not benefit, but think of the boys abroad who are far removed from their usual environments, who are doing some of them for Liberty Bonds. Would it be any chance for them then is our duty to these boys, who are making such great sacrifices for you and me—are we going to help them by a small contribution to the tobacco fund. You will note by looking it over that it is gradually rising from day to day. Every 25 cents will furnish a boy in the trenches with a smoke kit. It will bring comfort to him, and a breath of freshness from the home land. Can you deny yourself some small extravagance in order to give to this splendid undertaking?

URGING BANKS TO SIGN THEIR REPORTS

Kerfoot W. Daly, chairman of the Liberty Loan committee of Washington county, has sent a number of telegrams today to various banks in the county, asking them to mail their yellow cards to the Central Committee at Pittsburgh, that a closer tab may be kept on the amount of the Liberty Loan subscriptions. Two banks in the county, the Peoples Bank of California, and the First National of Finleyville took their quota without turning a word.

COLORED DRAFTEES FROM THIS DISTRICT SUMMONED FOR DUTY

PART OF SIXTH STREET TEMPORARILY CLOSED

Sixth street, from Lincoln avenue up will be closed for a few days while a new water line is being put down by the Tri-Cities Water company. There was some division of opinion as to the right of the water company to place their line on this street, but as the borough council being evenly divided on a vote recently taken, the corporation has gone ahead with the improvement.

COAL TAKEN FOR ONE DAY

Output of Many Mines Requisitioned by the Government

TO RELIEVE SHORTAGES

Fuel Administrator Earl Browder, announced from Washington on Wednesday that the entire output of coal in Ohio, Western Pennsylvania and Michigan districts will be requisitioned next Monday by the United States government and distributed for domestic consumption in sections of Ohio and Michigan where there has been a severe shortage.

Large deliveries will not be permitted and retailers will be requested to put in orders only for the amounts which are actually necessary.

Under the regulation all of the coal in Ohio, Western Pennsylvania and Michigan districts on Monday next will be distributed among domestic consumers, regardless of contracts which may have been entered into for delivery to other points. These contracts can be filled later, when the acute condition is ended. Operators will also be directed to supply retailers whether they were customers in the past or not, and retailers must sell only to persons who have no stock of coal on hand.

What effect this order will have on local mines that have no railroad connections is not apparent at this time. These operations run when they have cars; when they are not supplied their mines are idle. Whether their output can be delivered, even if requisitioned, is a question for further deliberation.

In the meantime a number of local communities are not any too well supplied with coal even for domestic uses, the output being loaded and shipped to other points.

Leave for Camp Sherman from Monongahela Early Friday Morning

PARTY WILL NUMBER ABOUT 40

The colored draftees from the Fifth District will leave for Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, Ohio, Saturday morning on the 7:28 train from Monongahela. Orders to this effect were received by the local exemption board from Harrisburg this morning and the men who are to make this trip are now being notified.

According to the orders the men will assemble at 6:30 Friday evening at the armory on Second street in Monongahela, for roll call and to receive such instructions as the Board may deem necessary to give. After this has been attended to the draftees will be entertained by the colored people of Charleroi, Donora and Monongahela, a parade being one of the features, to be followed by a banquet, arrangements for which have already been completed.

Friday morning at 7:28 the men will entrain for Pittsburgh, where they will join with other units from Washington county, and go on to Camp Sherman. There are about forty men to be called in this contingent, all of them being summoned for service and passed by the board for service.

Local committees from the three towns have made very complete arrangements to entertain the colored men, and the parade in their honor will be quite large. Various lodges and fraternal orders have been ordered to report in Monongahela Friday evening and practically all of those in the three towns have made arrangements to attend.

This is the first call for colored men made by the government, and it is expected the demonstration in their honor the evening before their departure will be one of the largest affairs of the kind ever held in the district. Many bands of music have already been engaged and if the weather is propitious the turnout is expected to be large.

The Annual Ball and Masquerade of Charleroi Circle No. 303 Protected Home Circle will be held in Night's Auditorium, October 26. Admission 50 cents, ladies 25 cents.

FOES WITHIN OUR GATES

The Washington dispatches announcing a widely active pro-German conspiracy to defeat the second Liberty loan mention among the methods resorted to: Attempts to discourage prospective buyers of Liberty bonds.
Efforts to prevent certain banks from handling the bonds. The publication in certain newspapers and other mediums of editorials and articles which while not directly opposing loan subscriptions, tend to discourage buyers.
The prevention, so far as local and sporadic efforts can prevent, of the placing of Liberty loan posters and advertising literature where it will be most beneficial. "Instances have been brought to the attention of officials where buyers have been approached, apparently in a spirit of great friendship, and advised not to buy the bonds."

Curiously enough, the efforts of La Follette are not mentioned in the summary, yet, according to Washington dispatches of the same date, the Wisconsin pro-German now under investigation by a Senate committee for his alleged treasonable utterances "is flooding the country with hundreds of thousands of copies of his speeches attacking the war revenue act and virtually predicting the failure of the Liberty Loan." It appears that three hundred thousand of these speeches have been printed at the government's expense and sent at its cost to every part of the country. No wonder the question is raised as to whether La Follette should be allowed thus to use his privileges as a Senator pending the decision as to his case.
The months of secret enemies of the Liberty loan can not be stopped, but the government can at least refuse to pay for the circulation of printed attacks. We take pride in our free country and that is why the enemies in our midst are so bold; but it should not be so free as to permit the foes within our gates to attempt to stab the nation in the back while we are at war.

MORE ABOUT CAMPS

The Commission on Training Camp Activities, appointed by the government has made a report to the Secretary of War and it has this to say about the control of alcohol and prostitution in and about the cantonments:

"The problem of suppressing vice and the sale of alcohol to soldiers at or near army camps, in accordance with Sections 12 and 13 of the Military Draft Law, is being attacked from many angles with varied agencies."

"The first and prime requisite is the gathering of full and accurate information as to actual conditions in the neighborhood of the camps. The cainery for gathering this information has included the field agents of the Commission, the field men of the Department of Justice, the Intelligence Department of the Army, the local provost guards, as well as the staffs of such organizations as the National American Social Hygiene Association, the Committee of Fourteen of New York, the Committee of Fifteen of Chicago, the Watch and Word Society of New England, and the Bureau of Social Hygiene of New York."

A representative of the Commission is now located in the vicinity of every National Army and National Guard camp, and continuous investigations are in progress. The work of these representatives is checked by supervisors for given districts, who also control the work in the smaller specialized camps.

As a result of this work the red light districts have been abolished in practically every city or town near which there is an army camp, while the local authorities are assisted by the military police in looking after any one who might attempt to evade any of the laws relating to this feature or to the sale of liquor to soldiers.

So far as the morals of the young men of the army are concerned, the government is safeguarding them with every care.

"FIGHTING FOR PEACE"

Henry VanDyne begins his article,
"Fighting for Peace—Stand Fast, Ye Free," in the November Section with a dialogue between a Householder and a Burglar. The burglar with blood on his face, devastation and murder all around, talks of peace.
"I have offered you a chance for peace. Don't you want it?" Will you not drop your bloody weapons and go before the judge? I want peace no more than I want justice.
Will there be a God in Heaven and honest freemen still live on earth I will fight for both."

There is a great lesson for all of us in this brief dialogue. A peace at the present time with Germany would be nothing more than a temporary truce. It would give that country an opportunity to recover from the losses of the past three years, run its army into another great fighting machine, build more fighting ships and manufacture hundreds of additional heavy guns and tens upon tens of shells, all that might again attempt the conquest of the world.

The governments of the allied nations are not fooled by the German desire for peace. They are preparing to carry on military activities all through the winter, and regardless of the fact how much the Kaiser and his underlings may desire a cessation of hostilities during the freezing weather of the next few months, there is going to be some terrible fighting on the Flanders front. The Germans will be given no rest. Allies have the men and the material and the munitions, and having taken the initiative, are going to press home every advantage.
Kaiser Bill and his people began this war—the thing to do is to give them enough to last for a thousand years.

THE ARMY MAKES A MAN OF YOU

Private Nelson Courtley, of Company B, 111th United Infantry, now training at Camp Hancote, Augusta, Ga., writes the Mail as follows:

"I am now a member of the 111th Regiment, as in the reorganization we took over the old Sixth Regiment from Philadelphia, and have been assigned to the 56th Brigade. The old 16th is the 112th Regiment, and took over the old Eighth, which has Companies in and about Harrisburg."

"We also had a parade today from the camp to Augusta. It lasted for about two hours and we marched about 14 or 15 miles. It was good and hot during the march and when we came back to camp every man was required to take a shower bath."

"There is one thing about the army —it makes a man of you, and it teaches you how to take care of yourself but in another way it isn't very pleasant in time of war, because they have to be strict. Of course we know there has to be discipline but it is rather severe for one to come out of civil life and into the army during war, when he is compelled to do things just when and how somebody else wants it.
However, it is part of the game and we are all taking our "medicine" with good grace."

THOMAS WEST IS CHIEF MARSHAL

A second meeting of the colored citizens of this district to perfect arrangements for the departure of draftees was held in Monongahela Wednesday evening. The parade in honor of the men will be held Friday evening at 7:45 o'clock and delegations reported from Monessen, Don-ora, Charleoi and Monongahela that they would be present and take part.
Thomas West, of Charleoi, was appointed Chief Marshal, and all who wish to participate in the parade are requested to report to him this evening at his home. 829 Meadow ave-

SEARCHING FOR

ENGINEER'S BODY

Mr. Sam Barnum will not be ready for service for several weeks. The company is left with but one boat, the Volcano, with which to take care of their large amount of towing. It will be necessary to secure the services of other boats in order to keep up with the demands of their trade.

The body of Charles Martin, engineer, who was drowned when the Tanager Monitor sank Tuesday night, was recovered shortly after 10 o'clock this morning by the submarine diver, Charles Hibel. The body was found between the throttle valve stand and the "doctor," lying on the floor of the engine room. The body was taken to Frye's undertaking rooms, where it was prepared for burial. The body will be shipped this afternoon on the 4:05 train to Semmesick's undertaking rooms, South Side, Pittsburgh. Mr. Martin was a member of Clifton Lodge, No. 28, F. & A. M. of Mason, W. HAYDEN FAMILY HAS LEFT MONESSEN Dory Hayden, and family, who have been residents of Monessen for many years, left that town this morning and will make their future home in Cleveland. For twelve years, Mr. Hayden was chief draftsman at the Page Woven Wire Fence company plant at Monessen, and during all that period has been a resident of that town. He leaves Monessen to take up a larger field in his special line of work, the decision having been made on account of poor health as well as greater opportunities.

SUGAR MISERS MAY BE FOILED IN PRICES

The sugar supply has become a serious problem at the present time, and unless some relief is furnished by the government, rations of this character will have to greatly be reduced. However, there are many who believe the shortage is more apparent than real. The finding of 5,000 tons in hiding in Buffalo has given rise to the belief that similar stores are kept under cover in other cities and towns. The government, however, is attempting to relieve the situation and has arranged to secure 200,000,000 pounds from Louisiana producers.

SOLDIERS BUY HEAVILY OF LIBERTY BONDS

One thousand men in training at Ft. Moultrie, S. C. have taken $80,000 in Liberty bonds, an average of $800 for every man in the camp, according to advice received in Charleroi from one of the men at the camp. The soldiers are paying for these bonds out of their army wages. Soldiers in training at every camp in the United States have been equally liberal in these purchases, thus showing by their action that they are not only ready to offer their lives, but their fortunes as well in order that the United States may emerge victorious in the present war with Germany. The example of these young men is a good one to follow. There is yet plenty of time for Charleroi wage earners to follow suit.

Mrs. Jennie Jolliffe of Bellevue visited friends in Charleroi Thursday. Charles Ludwig of McKean avenue returned from a visit with his brother William who is at Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, Ohio.

Curiosity as to the contents of those Swedish pouches and boxes that are receiving attention in Washington needs no explanation, it being pretty well established that Sweden has been deliberately playing Germany's game behind a mask of neutrality.

LOCAL HIGH WILL WATCH THIS GAME

The Donora and Monessen high school football teams will meet in their annual clash on Saturday next, and the outcome of the contest will be watched with great interest by local followers of the game, because of the fact that Charleroi High meets both teams. The Monessen team appears on the 24th of November, while on Thanksgiving Day the local team will go to Donora to play the high school team of that place. This latter game will end the season.

Both Donora and Monessen are "louted" as having splendid teams, Donora particularly being considered a veteran team, as it lost but few of its members of last year through graduation. However, it is reported that Little, one of their best men, has left the team, and is playing with Monongahela, which is his home town, his mother and sisters having lived there for the past year. Monessen, on the other hand, has won all of its games this season and is reported as going strong. The game on Saturday will be a test of strength of these two teams, and the final score will be eagerly awaited by the supporters of the Charleroi high.

THERE IS YET TIME

Do not think because Wednesday was Liberty Loan Day that you cannot buy any more Liberty Bonds before the close of the sale. You can buy bonds up until Saturday night at the closing of banking hours. And the banks are going to accommodate you. Not only last night, but this evening, Friday and Saturday evenings, they will be open and the various officials and employees at their desks for the purpose of giving information and selling Liberty Bonds. The government is in real earnest about the sale of these bonds. It needs the money, and it goes to the only place it can get it—the people. If you do not lend it, the government will be compelled to levy taxes and make you pay the cost. Therefore the question is, whether you wish to make an investment, the safest in the world, or have the cost of the war levied in the way of taxes. The answer is with the people of the United States.
